Resolution Number 3

Scheduling of Society for Range Management Annual Meetings

January 24, 2017

WHEREAS, the Society for Range Management is a professional conservation organization committed to sound management of rangelands based upon sound scientific principles. AND;

WHEREAS, our membership is diverse representing all aspects of academic, research, professional practitioners, and ranchers. AND;

WHEREAS, many of our members also participate in other professional and conservation organizations whose missions compliment this Society's. AND;

WHEREAS, our annual meeting is one of this Society's principle tools for educating our members, exchanging information, and ensuring members have information they need for decision making. AND;

WHEREAS, our annual meetings are a principle source of revenues used to fund this Society and its operations. AND;

WHEREAS, our membership and member participation has declined significantly from levels this Society experienced in the past.

NOW, therefore be it resolved that the Society for Range Management Board of Directors, Annual Meeting Planning Committees, and our agents and consultants work diligently to ensure that our Society's annual meetings are scheduled to avoid conflicts with complimentary organization's annual meetings. AND;

NOW, be it further resolved that the Society for Range Management Board of Directors, Annual Meeting Planning Committees, and our agents and consultants actions to schedule and plan annual meetings for our Society are done to ensure that we optimize the opportunity for our members to participate. AND;

NOW, be it further resolved that the Society for Range Management Board of Directors, Annual Meeting Planning Committees, and our agents and consultants actions to schedule and plan annual meetings for our Society also seek to optimize annual meeting revenues while also encouraging member participation.
